

June 8, 1989

LAPLANTE WINS GUY LAFLEUR AWARD

Concordia University economics major Richard Laplante is this year's winner of the Guy Lafleur Trophy. The award is given annually to the Quebec University hockey player who best combines hockey skills with academic achievement.

Laplante was selected to the Ontario University all-star team this past season. As well, he successfully completed his second year in the Faculty of Arts & Science majoring in Economics. He receives a $1500 scholarship for this year and $2000 per year for three years to further his education.

-30-

SOURCE: Department of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics